

Rose Cottage
Thorpe Lea Rd.
Egham, Surrey.
August 12th 1972

Dear Mrs. Smeets,

I am sorry to tell you that my uncle Jack had died. He was ill for several years with cancer of the brain but just recently he had a kidney infection as well.

Throughout his illness he was always cheerful and never complained. I shall miss him very much.

Yours sincerely,

Peter H. Clarke